

b. I, the undersigned the governmental veterinarian in – charge acknowledge that the live animals of the above descriptions satisfy the following conditions:

- The Day-old chicks from Country where the highly pathogenic avian Influenza was not recorded in domesticated birds and in captive birds for at least 12 months prior to export in accordance the published animal health reports, or have freedom for a minimum period of 28 days after the successful control applying a stamping-out policy and disinfection after an outbreak in country which has been previously free (Delete if not applicable)
- Day-old Chicks from zones* which are free from Newcastle for at least 3 months if case of applying a stamping-out policy or 12 months if the stamping-out policy is not applied(Delete if not applicable)
- Day-old Chicks from establishment free from other notifiable bird diseases other than HPAI and ND for at least 3 months or tests to ensure that they are free of these diseases that have been recorded in the 3 months prior to shipment.
- Day-old chicks from herds of parents present in the exporting country for at least the last six months or since hatching and have not mixed with any other imported birds.
- Day-old Chicks from herds or hatcheries that are subjected to regular supervision and inspection by the competent veterinary authority and that applies HACCP or equivalent
- In case of parents are vaccinated, the types and dates of vaccinations should be mentioned within 3 months prior to exportation
- The shipment of chicks was placed in new, clean boxes with an identification card with the name and address of the establishment and identification numbers for the cage or box and designed as follows:

- Have holes for good ventilation
- cleaned and disinfected
- allow Visual viewing and examination
- To comply with IATA rules in case of air transport

* Zone is identified as the first administrative division

Veterinarian in – charge

Name and address

Position

Date :

Signature

Official stamp

*Zone is identified as the first administrative division .